

Adventure
Awaits

Hello My Friend...

Pausing to take a moment to introduce myself and share an invitation with you...

I am a lady determined to give and live my life for the Lord and I am passionate about sharing His love with my fellow Sisters in Christ. I am happily married and have two incredible sons I call my heart with legs. My family and our relationship with the Lord and each other are top priorities in my life. I serve as a Christian Life Coach, nestled in the mountains of His creation, inspired to join others on their journey to discover and live a purpose-filled life.

I have worn many professional hats throughout the years. I have experience in the fields of sales, eLearning, various office positions, and even have a self-published book. One constant has remained under all these hats and that is my love for people. My adventure in sales revealed a determination to connect people with the resources that could help them. Once I found something useful, joyful, or interesting, I couldn't wait to share the news with others.

Later, the Lord invited me to begin serving in my church, revealing how my love for people could expand beyond the borders of work and family. I began serving with the host team and children's programs and building relationships in small groups. He opened the eyes of my heart and encouraged me to reach out to others in a practical way. I began volunteering in my community at the local food bank and non-profit organizations. The Lord began to create a magnetic pull in my heart to be His hands and feet. That time of serving others for the Lord confirmed that I have always enjoyed connecting with people. I enjoy listening as they share their stories of hope, going 'All In' with the Lord, falling in love, overcoming adversity, raising children, going after dreams, living life to the fullest and all that entails.

For me it's about relationships. Relationships with the Lord and people. Years ago I embarked on an adventure with the Lord. A passion ignited in me to know more of Him, His love, His character, His Word...to find my identity in Him and to discover and pursue all He is. I found myself determined to find my role in His story, asking Him to reveal how He uniquely created me to serve others for His glory.

Scavenger Hunt in my Heart...

He sent me on an amazing scavenger hunt in my heart, revealing something new with each step of faith I took, a character building walk I continue on today, leading me on a pathway of deepening my relationship with Him and anchoring my trust in His love.

In the beginning, I didn't see how He could use someone like me in His story. I made my fair share of wrong decisions and as a result, my priorities were all out of whack. The cards seemed stacked against me and yet the wonder of 'what if' pulled me forward. I was intrigued by the questions...What if He did create me for a purpose beyond what I know now? What if I make it to the end of my life without discovering His love in this way? What if I miss out on living the Abundant Life He speaks about in His word? What about my children? What am I to learn that I should be passing down to them? Maybe the peace that Jesus said He left with us is possible to experience? What if I really could follow the guidance of the Holy Spirit? Is that love possible?'

YES IT IS! I made the decision to lean into the Lord and walk forward in my weaknesses and His strength. To go 'All In' to discover what He had been trying to draw me to all this time. That journey of surrender and discovery is why I am here with you today. Joy was found during this personal discovery. I feel stronger and more loved than ever by the Lord. I want to shout the words of Nehemiah 8:10 'the joy of the Lord is my strength.' The opportunity to help others experience this joy is exciting and humbling. My heart is prepared and ready. It is filled with His love. Romans 5:5 For we know how dearly God loves us, because He has given us the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts with His love.

I have seen God show up a lot throughout the years. I have seen His power as I dared to apply the Biblical truths He was showing me and my faith grew. I hope that my personal journey will help you to see how passionately I believe God can do incredible things in your life and how much He really does love you. To share the joy (beyond happiness) and peace a relationship with Christ can bring.

God Loves You and Your Life Has Purpose...

I am here to share with you that no matter who you are, what you do, where you are in life, God loves you and has purpose for you. As a believer, YOU ARE HIS CHILD and He wants to shower you with His LOVE! That is YOUR PURPOSE. He also desires for you to share His love with those around you and to unleash the JOY within your heart! I am here to take this journey with you, to meet you on your path. I am ready to walk alongside you as you take these steps towards Him and tune into what He is speaking to your heart. I'll listen with you, share words of encouragement, prayer, and support, to help you LIVE OUT what He reveals.

So my friend, is the Lord creating that magnetic pull in your heart? If so, I invite you to take a trip with me. Let's take a scavenger hunt into your heart, and embark on an AMAZING ADVENTURE with the Lord. May I join you on a journey to seek your role in His story?

It is a pathway filled with discovery of love, joy, laughter and tears. May I listen as your heart reaches out to know Him more? May I walk with you as you follow Him down the pathway of a purpose-filled life?

If the answer is yes, then please meet me here...In the beginning we find Him.

His light is our starting point.

For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God not by works, so that no one can boast. For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

Oodles of Hugs,

Michelle
